

Search For Girl Ends Under Porch

Wellesley, Mass., Aug. 26 (AP)—A 20-year-old Smith College senior—who vanished Monday after telling her mother she was going hiking—was found today semi-conscious but apparently uninjured under the porch of her home.

While searchers fanned out in a widespread search, Sylvia Plath was located by her brother, Warren, 18, and her grandmother, Mrs. Aurelia Schobar, 66, who heard moaning coming from the cellar of their home.

The girl was found behind a pile of lumber in a tiny space under the porch, through which entrance is gained by a 2½ foot opening about 5 feet above the cellar floor.

Police Chief Robert McVey said an empty water jar and a container of eight sleeping tablets were found by the girl's side. He said the bottle had contained 48 tablets when full.

Her mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston University professor, said her daughter recently had been depressed.

Surprise: Michigan Man Runs Into His Mother

Owosso, Mich., Aug. 26 (AP)—You might say Mrs. Lora Wilson, of Flushing, Mich., paid a surprise visit to the Owosso home of her son today.

Her son, Keith, was driving near his home. He approached an intersection without seeing a car approaching from a side street.
