

$600 a Day Awaits Holders of 15 Lucky Bucks

It's the talk of New England—the LUCKY BUCK TREASURE HUNT!

A golden deluge of $3525 every week—$600 a day, $425 Sundays—awaits you! Record-American Sunday Advertiser readers.

Beginning next MONDAY, Aug. 31, we want to hand you a "Barral" of money!

All you have to do—and that means ALL—is to examine every dollar bill you own and check its serial number with lists of serial numbers published by the three Boston Hearst newspapers.

AND IF A SERIAL NUM-

BER ON ONE OF YOUR DOLLAR BILLS IS IDENTICAL WITH ANY OF THE SERIAL NUMBERS PUBLISHED BY THE RECORD-AMERICAN, SUNDAY ADVERTISER, YOU ARE IN THE MONEY! YOU HAVE FOUND A LUCKY BUCK!

What will it be worth to you? PLENTY!

Daily, from Monday through Friday, we will list the cashing value to YOU of each LUCKY BUCK. Two of them will be worth $100 each, according to their serial numbers. Three others will get you $50 each and 10 others will be worth $25 each.

Serial numbers of 10 ene-tries will be published weekly in the Sunday Advertiser. Another one will worth $200! Another will be given a $100 value, still another $50 and seven more, $25 each.

You will be given one week after each serial number is published to bring in or send your LUCKY BUCK to us and get your cash—simple!

We are NOT going to hide these LUCKY BUCKS in obscure places! WE WILL PUT THEM INTO CIRCULATION BEFORE THE TREASURE HUNT GETS UNDER WAY, NEXT MONDAY! They may come to you from many channels, stores, restaurants, pay-calls, railroad stations, subway stands, filling stations and many other sources.

There are some facts to remember:

The Treasure Hunt will be touched off in the Boston Daily Record, Aug. 31. The Record will list the serial numbers of nine one-dollar bills and four five-dollar bills and four ten-dollar bills to YOU! That same day, the BOSTON AMERICAN will not only reprint these nine serial numbers—but add six new numbers.

The following day, the Record will publish nine more new serial numbers and add the serial numbers of all LUCKY BUCKS of these values—possibly all 15. The American will publish six new numbers and all unclaimed numbers. And so it will go, new listings your chance to win a prize!

Although no new serial numbers will be published Saturdays there will be printed each Saturday a complete list of ALL LUCKY BUCKS not claimed!

The Sunday Advertiser will only print 10 new serial numbers each week but will re-publish the serial numbers of unclaimed LUCKY BUCKS.

And remember—YOU CAN WIN MORE THAN ONCE! You can win EVERY TIME you find you have a LUCKY BUCK!

Girl in Trance, Hunt Hypnotist

BANFF, Alberta (AP)—The Mounted Police are searching for a traveling hypnotist-lecturer to bring a 19-year-old waitress out of a trance. They were told he hypnotized her at a show here Saturday night.

Betty Black of Nelson, B. C. is in Banff Hospital where doctors report she has a "consuming desire" to sleep.

The hypnotist is known here only as "The Great Dr. Zomb." If he cannot be found soon medical authorities may call in a psychiatrist to treat the girl.

She can be awakened and will speak and walk, but immediately drifts back to sleep. She refuses to eat.

After Miss Black fell into a trance in Dr. Zomb's audience, she was taken to the stage to be brought out of the spell. She seemed normal as she left the stage.

But at work next day she fell asleep three times.

Fined $250 in Horse Betting

LAWRENCE—Appearing in district court as the first man arrested on gaming charges since Capt. George C. Sweney was named head of the vice squad two weeks ago, William LeMontagne, 52, of Davis rd., Methuen, was fined $250 in district court yesterday and placed on probation for a year. He was charged with possessing implements for registering horse bets.

Battling a Bee Costs Him $10

EAST PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A bee cost Morris Young of Providence $10 yesterday. Young told Judge Saul Haven he was battling a bee in his pants when the bee pierced across a highway and hit another car. The driver fined him when he pleaded in court that he was in a hurry.

Bloodhound Trails Lost Girl Scholar

A large group of Boy Scouts yesterday joined in the search for 20-year-old Sylvia Plath, brilliant Smith College senior who mysteriously vanished Monday after leaving her Elmwood st., Wellesley, home.

Aided by a State Police bloodhound, police and nearly 100 volunteers concentrated their search for the literary scholar in a wooded area near her home and in the vicinity of Lake Umbagog and Morse's Pond, Wellesley.

The girl disappeared after leaving her mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston University professor, a note which read: "I am going for a hike and will be back tomorrow."

The bloodhound, brought from the State Police barracks in Andover, was hampered in picking up the girl's trail due to the heavy rains that fell Monday night.

State Police said a bottle containing about 50 sleeping pills was missing from the girl's room and it was believed she may have taken them with her when she left home.

Among relatives and volunteers taking part in the hunt for the student, who topped her class scholastically last year, was a close family friend, Col. Rex Gary, a former Army intelligence officer.

The missing student, daughter of the late B. U. Prof. Otto Plath, had been under a doctor's care for several months due to a nervous condition induced by her intense application to literary work. She won two college poetry awards and had stories and poems published in several top magazines.

GEN. WAINWRIGHT 'FINE'—SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Brookline Army Hospital reported Gen. Stephen M. Wainwright (Ret.) was "doing fine."

Belinda Vidor, 23, daughter of film director King Vidor and his former wife, silent screen star Eleanor Boardman, with her fiance, Dean R. Jones, 28, as they obtained a marriage license in Los Angeles. They plan to wed Sept. 11 in St. Alban's Church.

Shorter skirts for women are "silly," according to Lily Pons, petite-opera star, questioned in New York yesterday about the new styles for women. Furthermore, said Lily, "American women wouldn't go for it." She is definitely against shorter skirts or dresses.

'DEAF' BEGGAR HEARS 'FINE'

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit beggar with $5000 turned a deaf ear on most of his arraignment before Judge W. McKay Skidmore—what he heard he didn't like.

The beggar, arrested at a downtown corner, had $337 in his pockets and a bankbook showing a balance of $4700. "Where did you get the money?" the judge asked. "I'm deaf, I can't hear you," the beggar responded.

"Where did you get this money?" the judge shouted. "I can't hear you," the beggar repeated.

"I'll fine you $150," Judge Skidmore muttered. "I won't pay it," the beggar shouted. Judge Skidmore sentenced the beggar to 90 days.

Robs Woman's $5000 in Lift—NEW YORK (AP)—A young gunman escaped with a $5000 payroll after robbing a woman bookkeeper in an elevator of a Manhattan building.

Mrs. Rita Nages told police the man brandished a .38 caliber automatic in the office building elevator at 260 W. 30th st. and told her: "I don't want to hurt anybody but give me the money."

Window Fall Traps Toddler

BROCKTON—When 3 1/2-year-old Richard Kelly of Montello st. got his neck caught in a window at his home, an off-duty patrolman, Eldon H. Eckman, saved him from strangling to death yesterday.

The child, left in the care of a baby sitter while his mother went to Brockton hospital, put his head out a window which promptly fell on his neck.

Eckman, who lives across the street, heard the little boy's screams, raised a ladder and rescued him. Then he went looking for the baby sitter.

She was watching television.
