

act, Shift

revised to deal with the Security Files said Yesterday American Bar of Staller, Dulles ten, 3, Alameda, first steps with ego, assisted by night, who lost at Oak Knell, spital. Lyle was feet. One leg was, other just ad's navy cook, ntered to teach is of artificial

i. Dive Water

IVETTE FENICE Italy (AP)—Astronauts were 30's, plunged into his bathysit was made after here failed. steel-hulled de-1 meters, to the sea two miles le of Capt. That igh to beat the Sir William Beebe sphere of Ber-but was no chal-ord held by the earlier that if the ceded he may try weeks for 3000 sep between Pon-omen descended 588 feet) into the depths off Toulon

it Tells Breaks

a police lineup, a on University station, arrested at ley, following an e side a New York streday admitted re other places in t. Employed as a he student will court today. We be talked up-ge. Current state-ly. In the future, such tions, such as the

'Tis Not Only Luck--You Can Pluck That Lucky Buck!

They say that money doesn't grow on trees—but money will be sprouting all over town beginning next Monday, Aug. 31, when the thrilling LUCKY BUCK TREASURE HUNT gets under way.

Real cash folding money, A crop of $3925 every week; $600 a weekday, $225 Sundays. Coins and get it, you Record-American-Sunday Advertiser readers!

It's this easy: just examine every one-dollar bill that comes into your hands, and check its serial number with lists of serial numbers published by all three Boston Herald papers. And if a serial number on one of your dollar bills is identical with any of the serial numbers published, you have found a LUCKY BUCK.

You're likely to find one of these bucks almost anywhere. They will be put into circulation, before the TREASURE HUNT gets under way, in stores, shops, restaurants, subway stations, railway stations, filling station—all kinds of places.

Daily, from Monday through Friday, we will list the cash-in value TO YOU of each LUCKY BUCK. Two of them will be worth $100 each; three others will get you $50 each, and 10 others will be worth $25 each. Serial numbers of 10 LUCKY BILLS published weekly in the Sunday Advertiser, starting Sept. 6, will designate one bill worth $200; one worth $100; another worth $50, and seven more, $25 each.

You will be given one week after each serial number is published to bring in or send your LUCKY BUCK to us, and get your cash wishful.

The TREASURE HUNT starts Aug. 31 in the Boston Daily Record. The Record will list the serial numbers of nine one-dollar bills and designate their value TO YOU. That same day, the Boston American will not only reprint those nine serial numbers, but add six new numbers.

The following day, the Record will publish nine more new serial numbers and add the serial numbers of all LUCKY BUCKS apt then redesignated. The American will publish six new numbers and all redesignated numbers. The Sunday Advertiser will print not only 10 new serial numbers each week, but will republish all the serial numbers of all redesignated LUCKY BUCKS.

Another thing—YOU CAN WIN MORE THAN ONCE. You can win EVERY TIME you find a LUCKY BUCK. GOOD LUCK!

BOSTON DAILY RECORD, THURSDAY, AUG. 27, 1936

Marquis of Milford Haven, whose reported romance with Eva Bartok, Continental film star, has drawn headlines, arrives with her at London airport after 16 days in Italy. She wears black demin suit and inverted flower pot-like hat. Milford Haven's estranged wife, Romaine Simpson, sued for divorce last week in New York.

Moaning and stupefied by drugs, 20-year-old Sylvia Plath, brilliant Smith College student, missing since Monday, was found yesterday behind a pile of kindling wood in a cramped concrete recess in the cellar of her home in Elmwood St., Wellesley.

She was immediately rushed to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital where it was reported she would recover.

The girl's moanings led to her discovery even as police, who feared she may have taken her life, searched for her in dense woodlands at the dead end of Elmwood st., not far from the Plath home.

SOUNDS REVEAL GIRL, Mrs. Aurelia Shober, 69, Sylvia's maternal grandmother,

Fiancee Guarded In Vt. Torch Death

SHARON, Vt.—A 40-year-old carpenter was murdered in an abandoned schoolhouse yesterday by a torch slayer who tied and gagged him with gasoline soaked rags and then set them afire.

GOLF BALL 'FINE'

LUDLOW, Vt.—A box of 18 golf balls, offered as security in a traffic complaint, was put on sale yesterday by Police Chief Robert Kathan.

The chief said he stopped a speaker Monday who identified himself as Edwin E. Hamilton of San Gabriel, Cal., professional golfer, and ordered him to get up security for court appearance later in the day.

But the golfer said he was broke; the chief said, and put up the golf balls instead of cash. The man didn't show and the chief decided to try to convert the forfeited bail into cash.

Find $16,450 On RI Suicide

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Police investigating a suicide report in a rooming house yesterday found $16,450 in cash and $1800 in U. S. Treasury Bonds in the victim's pockets.

The dead man was identified as Howard Franklin Golder, about 60.

He was said to have no visitors during the two years he lived at the rooming house. Little was known about him there. The landlady, Mrs. Mary Bouchard, found the body.

In searching the man's clothing, police found a plastic pouch in a trouser pocket. At first they thought it was filled with tobacco, but discovered it stuffed with the bonds and $100 and $50 bills.

The medical examiner pronounced the man's death a suicide.

3 MORE GIVEN BET RAID FINES

LAWRENCE—Cleaning up prosecution of nearly two-score men arrested in State Police raids last July 30, three defendants were fined a total of $400 in District Court yesterday on gambling and lottery charges.

George J. McKenna, 51, of Broadway, was fined $250 and given a suspended sentence of three months. Henry S. La-Tuippe, 23, of Valley st., $100 fine and a two-month suspended sentence. Both were charged with registering bets. James Di-Lorenzo, 58, of Hampshire st., was fined $50 on a charge of operating a baseball pool.

Missing Smith Girl Found in Own Cellar

Moaning and stupefied by drugs, 20-year-old Sylvia Plath, brilliant Smith College student, missing since Monday, was found yesterday behind a pile of kindling wood in a cramped concrete recess in the cellar of her home in Elmwood St., Wellesley.

She was immediately rushed to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital where it was reported she would recover.

The girl's moanings led to her discovery even as police, who feared she may have taken her life, searched for her in dense woodlands at the dead end of Elmwood st., not far from the Plath home.

SOUNDS REVEAL GIRL, Mrs. Aurelia Shober, 69, Sylvia's maternal grandmother,

Find $16,450 On RI Suicide

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Police investigating a suicide report in a rooming house yesterday found $16,450 in cash and $1800 in U. S. Treasury Bonds in the victim's pockets.

The dead man was identified as Howard Franklin Golder, about 60.

He was said to have no visitors during the two years he lived at the rooming house. Little was known about him there. The landlady, Mrs. Mary Bouchard, found the body.

In searching the man's clothing, police found a plastic pouch in a trouser pocket. At first they thought it was filled with tobacco, but discovered it stuffed with the bonds and $100 and $50 bills.

The medical examiner pronounced the man's death a suicide.

3 MORE GIVEN BET RAID FINES

LAWRENCE—Cleaning up prosecution of nearly two-score men arrested in State Police raids last July 30, three defendants were fined a total of $400 in District Court yesterday on gambling and lottery charges.

George J. McKenna, 51, of Broadway, was fined $250 and given a suspended sentence of three months. Henry S. La-Tuippe, 23, of Valley st., $100 fine and a two-month suspended sentence. Both were charged with registering bets. James Di-Lorenzo, 58, of Hampshire st., was fined $50 on a charge of operating a baseball pool.

STOLEN GUN NOT ONE IN NOEL CASE

SPRINGFIELD—Capt. James J. McCarthy, chief of detectives, received word from the State Police ballistics expert yesterday that a revolver stolen in a local gas station holdup was not the gun used in the murder of Alderman Henry H. Noel in Holyoke Aug. 18.

Earlier, Guy R. Lanou, 23, of 192 Pearl st., was held in $20,000 bail for the grand jury in district court, after he pleaded guilty to the larceny of the gun, a .38, and another revolver of .32 calibre.

The .38, which was the calibre of the weapon used in the Noel murder, was transported to Woonsocket, R. I., and recovered by police. They sent it to State Police headquarters in Boston.

HOUSE SEARCHED

The chief frankly declared that he felt "responsible" and that any criticism in connection with this should be aimed in my direction.

He explained that although he did not personally search the house himself, "it was searched by my men and I was satisfied from what they reported the girl was not in the house."

GHOST PATIENT REPLY SECRET

LAWRENCE—Declining to reveal its contents, trustees of city-owned Burke Memorial Hospital at a three-hour meeting yesterday drafted a reply to Dist. Atty. Hugh A. Cregg, who asked for full report on charges that "phantom patients" had cost the city more than $300,000 during the past eight years.

City Solicitor James P. Kane said that in view of the nature of the trustees' letter, it could not be made public at present. It was charged that 100 patients were listed at the hospital, when only 60 actually were under treatment.

Mrs. Anna B. Smith, 31, Buffalo finch st., West End, has been missing since Aug. 9, her husband, Walter reported to police yesterday. She is 5 ft., 125 lbs., with long, Auburn hair. Recently subject to dizzy spells and headaches, she failed to return from a walk

3 IN FAMILY LINKED TO BIG THEFT RING

NORTHAMPTON—A routine vagrancy-auto trial of two sisters and their brother yesterday suddenly developed into a national case when the FBI described the trio as part of a $1-million shoplifting ring operating from coast to coast.

Mary Williams, 23, and her sister Jean, 25, denied vagrancy charges in district court after they were arrested in Maine st., allegedly begging from passersby.

Their brother, James, arrested at the same time, pleaded guilty to charges of driving an auto without a license or registration and was held in $500 for disposition Sept. 1. The sisters were held in $200 each for vagrancy charges.

3 IN FAMILY LINKED TO BIG THEFT RING

NORTHAMPTON—A routine vagrancy-auto trial of two sisters and their brother yesterday suddenly developed into a national case when the FBI described the trio as part of a $1-million shoplifting ring operating from coast to coast.

Mary Williams, 23, and her sister Jean, 25, denied vagrancy charges in district court after they were arrested in Maine st., allegedly begging from passersby.

Their brother, James, arrested at the same time, pleaded guilty to charges of driving an auto without a license or registration and was held in $500 for disposition Sept. 1. The sisters were held in $200 each for vagrancy charges.

3 IN FAMILY LINKED TO BIG THEFT RING

NORTHAMPTON—A routine vagrancy-auto trial of two sisters and their brother yesterday suddenly developed into a national case when the FBI described the trio as part of a $1-million shoplifting ring operating from coast to coast.

Mary Williams, 23, and her sister Jean, 25, denied vagrancy charges in district court after they were arrested in Maine st., allegedly begging from passersby.

Their brother, James, arrested at the same time, pleaded guilty to charges of driving an auto without a license or registration and was held in $500 for disposition Sept. 1. The sisters were held in $200 each for vagrancy charges.

photo feed