First Referendums
The townspeople had previously
on their opinion on rent con-l last September, when at the idential primary, they ballot-
most three-to-one in favor of extension of controls.
A sizable number of communi-
throughout the state, particuly those in the urban classifica-n, have voted for continuance controls. The effectiveness of law is yet untested, however,
ce none of the rent boards es-
lished have been in operation
ing enough to provide an answer
this question.
The agitation for extension of tolls created much interest in Framingham. It was spearheaded a citizens' group, under Mrs.
eet. Atty. Frank McKenna made available his office for distribu-
n and collecting of petitions.
It is estimated that some 2000
ms were collected on the petins, although the Selectmen did t validate more than 800 of these ms.
This will be the first time that
e townspeople have exercised ey right to review the nation's -limited town meeting. Un-

WESTBORO, Aug. 25 — Four persons were injured last night in a collision of two automobiles on the Worcester Turnpike, a short distance east of the Route 20 underpass.
Both cars burst into flames and were badly damaged, but none of the occupants were burned. The traffic tieup that followed was a difficult one to untangle.
Police estimate that 2000 persons were at the scene of the accident and blaze. Cars were tied up for some distance.
The injured were: Joseph Dadah,

Communists Deny Free Access to Camps By Allied Red Cross

Also Refuse to Divulge Whereabouts of Gen. Dean, Say 400 Refuse Repatriation

PANMUNJOM, Aug. 25 (INS)—Allied Red Cross officials returning from North Korea charged tonight that they had been denied free access to all war prisoners in Communist camps.
They disclosed also that the Communists had refused to divulge to the Red Cross the whereabouts of their highest-ranking prisoner, Maj. Gen. William F. Dean.
This charge, implying a Communist violation of truce terms, was made after the United Nations command announced it has been formally advised by the Reds that some 400 Allied prisoners have refused repatriation.
INFORMER TIPPED OFF REDS ON MASS ESCAPE
The announcement came several hours after an additional 138 Americans and 264 other Allied fighting men passed through Panmunjom's freedom gate.
The newly-repatriated GIs told the exchange site that a plan for a breakout by 1,900 starving American prisoners from a North Korean camp was foiled when an informer tipped off the Reds to the mass escape project.
Today's round of operation Big Switch was temporarily halted three times when fanatical North Korean Red repatriates spat in the faces of an American and a South Korean officer as they reached the exchange site.
The American officer, Lt. Col. Arthur Le Fevre of Flushing, N. Y., said he will make an official report of the ugly episode.

State Public Works Commission No Turnpike Authority

May Proceed With Hearings, Calls for Explorations in Lo

Tentative approval of the proposed Framingham of the Massachusetts East was given today by the State Commission Works in a letter addressed to Chairman Mahan and the members of the Massachusetts Authority.
This action by the state department for the holding of public hearings in cities through which the toll road is to pass. The news of this approval came just this afternoon. A spokesman for the Authority, said that the Authority received the letter a short time before, and not been time to consider it and take an AUTHORITY WILL SET HEARINGS.
It will be up to the Authority to set the hearing dates. Framingham, Ashland, Hopkinton, Natick and Weston residents would attend a hearing, probably at the county seat in Cambridge, while Southboro residents would attend the hearing to be held at Worcester.
Though the letter specifically requests that further explorations of the route location in Framingham and Weston be made, it makes no mention of the Readville route, which was originally proposed in a brochure prepared by the State Department of Public Works in February of 1952. Recently there had been insistent demands from residents of the Framingham area that this route be reconsidered.
The News was also unable to obtain a comment from State Commissioner of Public Works John A. Volpe's office regarding a letter which was sent to the commissioner by the Framingham toll road committee, asking that tentative approval of the proposed route be held up, pending receipt and publication of the reasons and data upon which the route choice was made.
It is not known whether Commissioner Volpe has this information.
Comar. Volpe's Letter
The letter received by the Authority, this afternoon, reads as follows, in part:
"The board of commissioners at their regular meeting, this morning, voted to give tentative approval to the proposed location of the Massachusetts Turnpike, as outlined on a map of Massachusetts submitted to them by your office.
This tentative approval is given so that the Turnpike Authority may proceed without delay with the county hearings, which are to be held.
It is intimated that further explorations of the location of the

Shaw Case Ordered to Grand Jury

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 25—Eugene Shaw, 25-year-old former Framingham resident, who was arrested last week on a first degree murder charge in connection with the strangulation death of his wife, was ordered held for the Grand Jury yesterday.
His counsel, Atty Paul C. Hanna of Framingham and Boston, told The News today that the case would probably go before the Grand Jury on Friday. If an indictment were given the case might come up in the Superior court next week.
Shaw waived examination yesterday and was remanded to the Albany County Jail. The case had been continued by the court to afford Shaw an opportunity to obtain counsel.
Atty. Hanna said today that he felt Shaw had "cracked up under family responsibilities." He pointed to the young man's previous good record and to his excellent record in the Air Force, in which he served for two years.
Police assert that Shaw signed a statement in which he admitted strangling his wife after she had told she had been out all night with another man. Authorities state that Shaw hid the body in a pile of clothes in the cellar later on.
