Legion Parley Opens Next Week In St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Amer- ican Legionnaires are coming to town next week, and every hotel, and tourist court for 25 miles around is booked solid.

Some 35,000 members of the legion and its auxiliaries are expected for the legion's 25th-national convention. More than 5,000 rooms in private homes have been promised to take care of the overflow.

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon and three Cabinet members read the list of speakers for the convention proper Monday through Thursday.

The grand parade, always a highlight of the meeting, will start at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Legion officials say it will require 10 hours to pass a given point, with about 100,000 persons, including about 250 bands and drum and bugle corps, marching in it.

Nixon and Secretary of the Navy Robert H. Anderson will speak Monday. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Wednesday, and Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson Thursday.

Late News Flashes

SHARON, Vt. (AP)— Frank Krivack, 35, of Sharon was found slain in an old school building here today. Investigators said he had been bound, gagged and shot to death. Windsor County officers were called and the state pathologist was summoned from Montpelier. His fiancée, Marion Miner of Windsor, whom he was to have married next Saturday, was taken into protective custody by authorities and lodged in the Windsor County Jail at Woodstock.

WELLESLEY (AP)—Wellesley police said today that Sylvia Plath, 20, a Smith College senior missing since Monday, had been found. She was taken to Newton-Wellesley Hospital by police who refused further details immediately and declined to answer when asked about the truth of a report she had been located in the cellar of her own home.
