2 Billerica GI's Return From Korea

BOSTON (U.S.)—Two Billerica soldiers today were among five prisoners of war released by the Reds in Korea as six other servicemen, recently released, arrived home for reunions with parents, wives and sweethearts.
The Billerica soldiers were Sgt. James Hamilton, son of Mrs. James Hamilton, and Cpl. Norman L. Boutwell, son of Mrs. Rose Boutwell. Other New Englanders registered in the latest exchange were:

Pfc. Leo Dwyer, nephew of Laura Waring, Lawrence; Lieut. Nimrod Turkoman, Pawtucket; R. J. and Cpl. John H. Beaudry, Williamantic, Conn.
The first six repatriated prisoners to arrive home in New England landed at Worcester Airport on a commercial transport plane and stepped down the ramp to be greeted by loved ones. They were given a tumultuous welcome at the airport, where they were presented with keys to the city of Worcester.
William E. Curtis, 23, Hyde Park, was greeted by his pretty bride, Cathy, with whom he had lived only three days before he returned to service and eventual duty and imprisonment in Korea. Cathy clung to one of his arms while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Williams Curtis, greeted the other. Cathy said:

"Bill and I are going to have

Seek Missing Smith Senior

WELLESLEY (U.S.)—An attractive 20-year-old Smith College senior, described as "close to nervous collapse," was the object of a statewide search today after disappearing from her home.
Sylvia Plath vanished after leaving a note to her widowed mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, Boston University professor. The note read:

"I am going for a hike and will be back tomorrow."
Mrs. Plath said her daughter had been nervous and under a doctor's care for several months. She said her daughter, an honor student, had been advised to devote less time to academic activities in the interest of her health.

In addition to her studies, the mother said, Miss Plath was working on poetry for submission to national publications. The girl's work has appeared in such magazines as Harper's and Mademoiselle.

When last seen, Miss Plath was wearing a blue denim skirt and a blue jersey blouse. She is five feet, nine, and weighs 140 pounds. Her hair and eyes are brown.

The mother said her daughter was fond of walking along the Charles River, or wandering through Boston Common and the Public Garden. Police searched these areas without success.

A POLICEMAN STANDS GUARD beside the bloodstained convertible in which Edward S. Bates, Amityville, N. Y., a Navy man, was found beaten to death, as shown here, in a vacant lot near Rockaway Beach.

Lifeguard Rescues

2 Boys on Raft
BOSTON (U.S.)—A Malibu Beach lifeguard today was credited with saving the lives of two Dorchester boys. John Hansen, 13, and Richard Joyce, 14, were playing on a makeshift raft when the current carried them a quarter-mile offshore with very good possibilities of taking over. MDC lifeguard Albert Devine noticed the boys and rowed to their aid.
