"THEY CAN'T DO THIS TO ME," Donna Legas, 8, appears to be thinking as she neglects the soda facing her in a Pittsburgh ice cream parlor. Her friend, Patty Perch, 8, is enjoying a cone. Pennsylvania has enacted a sales tax that hits sodas but misses cones. (International)

First Baptist Church Scene of Heitz-Skillin Marriage

When Miss Arlene Esther Skillin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Skillin of 98 Dudley street, was married at the First Baptist Church recently, she had five attendants preceding her up the aisle.

Given in marriage by her father before an altar decorated with white gladioli, she became the bride of Air Force Sgt. William E. Heitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Heitz, 2nd, of 170 Sheridan avenue.

The Rev. Alexander Henderson performed the evening ceremony, followed by a reception in Memorial Hall of the church.

Carrying a cascade bouquet of white carnations and gladioli, the bride wore a gown of white lace with high neckline and cathedral-length train. A lace headpiece decorated with pearls held her illusion veil which flowed to fingertip-length.

Miss Dorothy R. Skillin of Medford, maid of honor for her sister; wore a gown of Nile green silk organdy with headpiece and mitts to match. She held a cascade bouquet of deep red gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leonard E. Heitz of Medford, the bride's sister-in-law; Miss Lois Skillin of Medford, the bride's sister; Miss Doris Sharkey of Arlington and Mrs. Walter S. Clough of Brookline, another sister of the bride.

The bride's sisters wore yellow silk organdy gowns, with headpieces and mitts to match and the other two attendants were similarly gowned in orchid costumes. The former pair held orchid gladioli and the latter two, yellow bouquets.

Leonard E. Heitz, 3rd, of Medford was best man for his brother. Ushers included David and Frank Finlay, both of Quincy and cousins of the bridegroom; Dr. Walter S. Clough of Brookline and John Haynes of Medford.

After completing a trip through Maine, the couple will leave for Fayetteville, N. C. Sgt. Heitz is stationed in that state at Fort Brogg.

The bride was graduated last week from New England Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. Both she and her husband are Medford High School graduates.

Smith College Girl Recovers

WELLESLEY GIBB—A brilliant 20-year-old Smith College senior today was recovering from an overdose of sleeping pills as police sought to determine if she spent the two days she was missing in a tiny cellar recess of her home.

Sylvia Plath, honor student and literary contributor to national magazines, was discovered lying behind a pile of kindling wood on a narrow ledge between the basement and porch of her home. Beside her was found a water container and eight sleeping pills in a bottle which originally contained 50 tablets.

Police admitted it was possible she might have been in the cellar throughout the search for her. However, they pointed out that when she was found she was wearing different clothing than she wore when she last was seen.

Rites Tomorrow for Victim of Auto Accident

A solemn high mass of requiem will be sung tomorrow at 9 A.M. at St. Anthony's Church for Charles L. Smith of 40 Gilman street, Somerville, who died Tuesday at the Malden Hospital as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

Smith who was 29 years old had been a bridegroom of three months. He leaves his wife, the former Grace Capotosta.
