

Title: Philadelphia Inquirer

City, State: Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Date: 27 August 1953

Page: 6

Hunted by Posse,
Girl Lies in Coma

WELLESLEY, Mass., Aug. 26
(INS)—Sylvia Plath, Smith College [College] honor student who vanished two days ago, was found today alive but semiconscious from an overdose of sleeping pills in the cellar of her home.

Sylvia was found by her brother, Warren, 18, as a 100-man searching [searching] party, aided by State police bloodhounds, scoured the wooded areas around Wellesley.

She was taken to Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Her condition was reported as good.

Transcribed by Peter K. Steinberg, 14 September 2016.