WELLESLEY, Mass. (AP)—Wellesley [Wellesley] police said today that Sylvia Plath, 20, a Smith College senior missing since Monday, had been found.

She was taken to Newton-Wellesley [Wellesley] Hospital by police.

WELLESLEY, Mass. (UP) — Fear for the safety of a missing Smith college honor student increased [increased] today with disclosure that a bottle of sleeping pills is missing from her mother's locked cabinet.

Miss Sylvia Plath, 20, disappeared [disappeared] Monday, leaving a note in which she said she was "taking a long walk — will be back tomorrow."

The mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston University professor [professor], said her daughter's disappearance [disappearance] may have been due to a temporary [temporary] nervous disorder linked to her writing.

Felt Unworthy

Miss Plath was editor of the Smith Review, the college literary magazine, last year, and has sold

fiction and poetry to magazines and other publications.

Mrs. Plath said her daughter "recently felt she was unworthy of the confidence held in her by the people she knew. For some time she has been unable to write either fiction, or her more recent love, poetry.

"Instead of regarding this as just an arid period that every writer faces at times," the mother said,
"she believed something had happened [happened] to her mind, that it was unable [unable] to produce creatively any more."
