Fears Increase For Safety Of Missing Wellesley Student

WELLESLEY, Aug. 26—(UP)—Fear for the safety of a missing Smith College honor student increased today with disclosure that a bottle of sleeping pills is missing from her mother's locked cabinet.

Miss Sylvia Plath, 20, disappeared Monday, leaving a note in which she said she was "taking a long walk—be back tomorrow." Her mother, Mrs. Aurelia Plath, said the girl was under a doctor's care for nervous exhaustion at the time of her disappearance.

MARKING THE SPOT of what is possibly the oldest iron works in America, is this monument which is being examined by Edward Rowe Snow, the South Shore author and historian, at present on a canoe trip along the New England coast. The pillar stands at Furnace Brook, Quincy, near the site of a 17th century iron furnace.
