

Title: The Kansas City Star
City, State: Kansas City, Missouri
Date: 26 August 1953
Page: 3

[Photograph of SP wearing necklace and jacket]

A SUCCESSFUL END TO A HUNT... Sylvia Plath, 20, a Smith college senior, who had been the object of a widespread [widespread] search after being reported [reported] missing Monday, was found today in a semi-conscious [conscious] condition in the basement [basement] of her home in Wellesley [Wellesley], Mass. The young woman was discovered by her grandmother [grandmother] who had been attracted [attracted] to the cellar by moaning sounds. At a hospital, Miss Plath's condition was listed as "fair." The police were unable [unable] immediately to learn how she was injured or happened to be in the basement—(Wire-photo [Wirephoto]).

Transcribed by Peter K. Steinberg, 14 July 2020.