WELLESLEY, Mass., Aug. 26
—(AP) —A pretty 20-year-old Smith College senior—who vanished Monday after telling her mother she was going hiking—was found today semi-conscious but apparently [apparently] uninjured under the porch of her home.

While searchers fanned out in a widespread search, Sylvia Plath was located by her brother, Warren, 18, and her grandmother [grandmother], Mrs. Aurelia Schobar, 66, who heard moaning coming from the cellar of their home.

The girl was found behind a pile of lumber in a tiny space under the porch, through which entrance is gained by a 2½-foot opening about five feet above the cellar floor.

Police Chief Robert McVey Said an empty water jar and a container of eight sleeping tablets [tablets] were found by the girl's side.
He said the bottle had contained 48 tablets when full.

Miss Plath was taken to Newton-Wellesley [Newton-Wellesley] Hospital where a spokesman described her condition [condition] as "fair." The spokesman added that she had suffered "no apparent serious injury."
