Plath Girl

WELLESLEY, Mass. AP—Search continued today for Sylvia Plath, 20, a Smith College senior who disappeared Monday after leaving a note for her mother that she was going for a hike.

WELLESLEY, Mass. AP – Wellesley police said today that Sylvia Plath, 20, a Smith College senior missing since Monday, had been found. She was taken to Newton-Wellesley [Wellesley] Hospital by police who refused [refused] further details immediately [immediately] and declined to answer when asked about the truth of a report she had been located in the cellar of her own home.

The mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston University professor [professor], said her daughter's disappearance [disappearance] may have been due to a temporary [temporary] nervous disorder linked to her writing.

Miss Plath was editor of the

Smith Review, the college literary magazine, last year, and has sold fiction and poetry to magazines and other publications.

Mrs. Plath said her daughter "recently felt she was unworthy of the confidence held for her by the people she knew. For some time she has been unable to write either fiction, or her more recent love, poetry.

"Instead of regarding this as just an arid period that every writer faces at times," the mother said, "she believed something had happened [happened] to her mind, that it was unable [unable] to produce creatively any more."
