MISSING GIRL FOUND
UNDER PORCH

WELLESLEY, Mass., Aug. 26
(AP)—A pretty 20-year-old Smith College senior—who vanished Monday after telling her mother she was going hiking – was found today semi-conscious but apparently uninjured under the porch of her home.

While searchers fanned out in a widespread search, Sylvia Plath was located by her brother [brother] and her grandmother who heard moaning coming from the cellar of their home.

Police Chief Robert McVey said an empty water jar and a container of eight sleeping tablets [tablets] were found by the girl's side. He said the bottle had contained [contained] 48 sleeping tablets when full.

Her mother, Mrs. Aurelia S.
Plath, a Boston University professor [professor], said her daughter had been depressed because she felt
"she was unworthy of the confidence [confidence] held by her by the people [people] she knew."
