Missing Coed Found In Cellar of Home

WELLESLEY, Mass., Aug. 26 (U.P.)—Sylvia Plath, brilliant, poetry-writing Smith College girl who had been the object of an intense search since Monday, was found unconscious in the cellar of her home today.

The 20-year-old student was found in a partially excavated portion of the cellar under an ell by her brother Warren, 18. Beside her was an empty bottle which had contained 50 sleeping pills.
