MISSING CO-ED, 20, FOUND IN CELLAR

WELLESLEY, Mass., Aug. 26
(INS)—Pretty Sylvia Plath, brilliant [brilliant] Smith college student and literary contributor to national magazines who vanished mysteriously [mysteriously] Monday, was found today asleep in the cellar of her home.

The 20-year-old student-poet had taken 40 capsules of sodium-base sedative, which she had obtained through a doctor.

Sylvia was found as a 100-man searching party scoured the countryside [countryside] around Wellesley, including [including] the rocky ledge area.

Sylvia had left a note for her mother, Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston university professor, stating [stating] she was going to take a long walk. Her mother said her daughter [daughter] had been despondent over a temporary inability to go on with creative writing.

She was taken to Newton-Wellesley [Newton-Wellesley] hospital, where physicians said she would recover.
